OVERVIEW OF BLOCKCHAIN TECHNOLOGY

Blockchain technology is defined as a decentralized ledger that records digital assets. The data on the blockchain cannot be changed. Hacking data to add security to many industries, including cyber security, payments and health care is not easy. This guide describes “how it works”.

Blockchain is defined as a distributed ledger technology. It has made history of all digital assets. The blockchain analogy is quite complicated. But it shows an important idea of technology. The blockchain is a database that encrypts blocks of data. Chain blocks to create the only reliable source of data. This asset is decentralized, giving you real-time transparency and access to things. There is a transparent ledger of changes, including document integrity. We have built trust in almost every industry. Due to the secure nature of blockchain and public leisure, these have become important technologies for all sectors. It reduces risk, stamps fraud and brings measurable transparency to use.

There are many areas where blockchain technology is used. Our team has the concept of online and offline courses designed to make people aware of blockchain technology. Crypto Currency coaching centres will be set up on a small scale in UK, UAE, USA, IND cities. It helps everyone to know about blockchain technology.

AN INTRODUCTION TO AGS COIN

AGS Coin is a BEP20-based token that forms the backbone of this new project called AGS Coin. The token was released on DEC 01, 2021. It starts with, crypto projects, crypto education, and Utility Services and more its soon Listed a Best exchanges. The total supply of tokens is about 50,000,000,000. Each token holder has several benefits. You can also find out about upcoming projects.

We see crypto as a new era of invention and investment technology. It interferes with traditional trading methods. Crypto currencies are commonly referred to as digital currencies. It can be used to purchase all goods and services. You can also trade this as an asset by rules and regulations.

CREATE GLOBAL WEALTH

Crypto currencies will become worldwide the standard “storage of value”, and will replace current methods to store value (fiat money, bank accounts, pension funds, precious metals, derivatives, ...). Because of the laws of Supply and Demand, the value of crypto currencies will increase fast, for some coins the value will really explode. Lots of new wealth will be created during this process (and existing wealth will be transferred from the old storage of value items to cryptocurrency). People that will be early adopters of cryptocurrencies will profit from these price increase, and will generate a lot of wealth. The AGS Coin project wants to allow everyone the possibility to become an “early adopter”, so that everyone has the chance to participate in this wealth creation.

PRICE AND SUPPLY OF THE AGS COIN

To have the option to go about as a "store of significant worth" and a "trade of significant worth" the AGS coin needs to meet 2 prerequisites:

- 1) Enough coins must be accessible, to permit everybody worldwide to utilize it
- 2) Enough coins must be accessible, so that cost is less unstable and can be used for trade of significant worth.

We chose to make Pre Sale 21.000 Million AGS coins.

After Free Sale we Give IEO 25% of Total Supply

In the first 3 months of the project, the AGS coin was said to be distributed via small Exchanges(Listed) at the price of 0.0143 USD.

THE TEAM

The AGS coin is started by a little gathering of volunteers. We don't view ourselves as the drawn-out proprietor of the AGS coin, yet essentially as the people that are doing the beginning up and that will direct the AGS coin to development.

When ALL coins are dispersed, the AGS coin will be a self-guideline eco-framework, definite as what we see with the Bitcoin.
